

Kappa Delta Alums Plan Annual Dinner

Board members of South Bay Kappa Delta Alumnae Association are preparing for their annual dinner meeting to be held on Wednesday, Sept. 18, 7 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Roger Gardemann, 6910 Clovercliff Dr., Palos Verdes Peninsula. A Polynesian theme has been chosen with officers, in native dress, serving as hostesses to active members.

New executive board members include Mmes. James O'Brien, Torrance, president; Jerry Young, Rolling Hills, vice-president; Gerald Klomp, Torrance, secretary; Neil Brown, Rolling Hills, treasurer; Sid Semon, Torrance, editor.

Chairmen will include Mmes. Earle Scofield, Palos Verdes Estates, Panhellenic representative; George Bowman, Manhattan Beach, membership; Henry Heeber, Gardena, courtesy; George Zucker, Redondo Beach, magazine; Roger Gardemann, Palos Verdes Peninsula, social; William Kraemer, Gardena, and James Morrow, Redondo Beach, Southern California council representatives.

All Kappa Delta Alumnae, living in the area, are invited to attend this first meeting of the year. Reservations for the dinner may be made with Mrs. Roger Gardemann.

Knitting Class on YWCA Schedule

Torrance YWCA is offering a class in knitting for the beginner or the intermediate knitter. The instructor, Mrs. Fran White, who has been a knitter for over 30 years, is well known in the South Bay area, having taught class to all ages and was owner of the Designer Yarn Shop in Torrance for three years.

The class will meet Monday mornings, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. for eight weeks starting Sept. 23. The course is designed to acquaint the new student with the basic knowledge of knitting. Classes will be three hours. The student will spend two hours of this time knitting on a garment of her choice, one hour will be spent in participating in a demonstration of a specific phase of knitting.

The student will learn how to choose yarn for a given pattern, how to select the correct size, the proper way to measure, how to check gauge, and will learn how to read patterns.

Methods of weaving, joining new yarn, increasing and decreasing, correcting mistakes, assembling and finishing will be demonstrated.

The student will be shown how to make her own blocking board and how to block a finished garment. Students should bring to the first class a notebook and pen, tape measure, pattern, yarn and needles. For fees and other information the Torrance YWCA may be called.

'Far East' Is Topic For Chapter Meet

"The Far East" will be the program given by Mrs. Harry Vannatta in her Palos Verdes home this evening at 8 when she entertains the Xi Nu Upsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. Main theme for the meeting will be a trip through Japan.

Mrs. Morton Jones will give the welcome ritual to two transferees, Mmes. William Lockhead and Gordon Hartley.

A report of the Valentine Ball committee will be given by Mrs. David Sowers.

Mrs. Raymond Young will report on the Southern California Council breakfast held in Newport Beach. Members who attended were Mmes. Mack Johnston, James Hendrix, Edward Morris, Irving Kurman, Raymond Young and Harry Vannatta.

Square Dance Class Opens

"The Knots and Why Knots" pre-teen square dance club, will sponsor a new beginners class for pre-teen square dancers beginning tomorrow, Sept. 19, from 6 to 8 p.m. at 1953 1/2 W. Carson St., Torrance. Children from 7 to 12 years are included in this group.

Charlie Fagar is the instructor and will be assisted by Walt and Sunny Lee Fagan. For further information Opal Seward, president, may be called.

Answer Call of The Islands

As tradewinds blow through Marina Park Saturday evening, Los Colinas Garden Club will present a gala Haele Luau benefit featuring island foods at 8 p.m. with an Hawaiian orchestra furnishing the musical background. Sword dancers will entertain and there will be door prizes. Ready for the event are, from left, in colorful muumuus, Mmes. Marian Hanner, holding a large paper flame, watching Mmes. Boyd O'Dell and Davis Cochran adding spice to one of the featured entrees. Proceeds will go to the club's fund for "civic beautification" in the local area. (Press-Herald Photo)
